Polish tennis player, 21-year-old Gina Feistel was elated to win the ITF W35 title in a thrilling match going to three sets against Swiss player Jenny Düst. Jenny endured a hard week and partnered Slovakian Nina Vorgova to win the doubles title in a tight Champions Tie-Break in the third set against Antonia Schmidt and Katharina Hobgarski from Germany. Circus Maramber was back in Klosters

Benjamin Pfeiffer and his well trained and colourful parrots put on a show with a difference.

Zahra Sebbar balancing on a 9 mm thick tightrope AND doing the splits – a brilliant performance! Maramber, the original Grisons circus was here last week in Klosters as part of their annual tour covering 34 locations from Zurich to the Rhine valley, from Lake Constance to the Engadine. Aptly run by the Family Berger they will be coming round back to Davos from the 7th – 11th August. Photos: cs

An action-packed summer lies ahead

Welcome back to Visitor's Corner and there are many exciting events in Klosters taking place over the coming months and hopefully summer will truly arrive soon.

Clair Southwell

The Summer Fest kicked off the season with fantastic children's entertainment, a demonstration from the Klosters Fire Brigade of their impressive brand-new aerial ladder, musical entertainment and food and drinks provide by local organisations. Last week we had excellent tennis with the ITF M25 & W35 Open, brilliantly organised by the new team of 6 locals (3 sibling pairs!) who have taken over the reins of the traditional Klosters tournaments and congratulations to them all.

It is not just the Switzerland v England football match tomorrow but the first Davos Klosters Sounds Good concert in Klosters, which clashes with the football, but it is sponsored by the Seven Alpina Boutique Hotel, and they have a large screen up in the lobby bar so you can enjoy both! Performing in the tent in the Bahnhofplatz at 3.00pm will be the Swiss artist Nico Brina and his trio with boogie woogie, blues and rock'n'roll. Concerts will take place next week on Madrisa, Grünbödéli Grill (hosting 3 concerts), Alpenrösli, Piz Buin Bär's Restaurant and on Saturday 13th July back in Bahnhof Platz from 11.00am – 4.30pm when we can welcome the spectacle of the Säumers, horses, mules and followers arriving. Always a wonderful and colourful occasion!
